KS Disco in Mufulira last week played host to Larry Maluma and upcoming lady singer Helen Kalungu.

DAVEY MWAMBA writes: It was Maluma's first performance in town, and he was backed by the Sappers band. He was a delight to watch as he went into his popular "Chakolwa" number.

After the performance, Larry said he was booked for a big bash at the same venue on April 30 on the eve of Labour Day celebrations.

Helen Kalungu in fact surprised many revellers with her beautiful songs which should put her firmly on the road to fame.

KS director Peter Kalulu said there were plans to introduce the KS Band to play alongside the disco. He said it was necessary in order to supplement the efforts of most cabaret artistes coming to perform at the house.

"Though I would love to invite many singers, this has not been possible because of the same problems. But since I have bought guitars, a P.A system and other needed accessories for the group, we should kick-off very soon."
